Dear Admiral Turner:

On Monday, October 29, Mrs. Dillon and I will host a black tie dinner at Anderson House in Washington, D.C. We would like very much to have you and Mrs. Turner join us that evening.

Our special guests will be Mr. and Mrs. David Rockefeller, members of the Chase Manhattan Bank's International Advisory Committee and their wives. We will begin with a cocktail reception at 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 8:00 p.m.

Anderson House, at 2118 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., is the headquarters of the Society of the Cincinnati, the membership of which is limited to one living descendant of an officer who served in the Continental armies during the American Revolution. I am the current representative of my family as a member of the Society.

Mrs. Dillon and I hope very much that you will be able to join us for this special occasion. Please let me know if you can be with us on October 29th.

With best wishes,

Sincerely

Douglas Dillon

Dear Stan:

My old and good friend Douglas Dillon who has been a Director of the Bank and is currently a member of Chase's International Advisory Committee, has kindly agreed to serve as the official host for the International Advisory Committee's black tie dinner scheduled for Monday, October 29, at Anderson House in Washington. You will be receiving an invitation from Mr. Dillon if it has not already reached you. Peggy and I want you to know how pleased we both would be should you be free to join us that evening.

The Bank's International Advisory Committee is made up of leading industrialists and businessmen from around the world. We normally meet twice a year in New York. However, every third meeting we try to arrange to gather in the country of one of the members. We have been given an opportunity in the fifteen years of the Committee's existence to meet and see extraordinary people, things and events thanks to the generous courtesy and hospitality of hosts in several countries, but thus far we have never met in our own nation's capital. With this in mind, we thought it was a good idea to have the 1979 fall meetings in Washington, and we are currently working on a program there that we hope will prove to be memorable.

We plan to make this Monday night event one of the highlights of our October session and hope to have you with us that evening.

With best regards.

Sincerely,
